

THE WAVES

Student of the Month
KIRANJEET SINGH

For Kiran, his peers say

“He is a very proactive student who is always ready to help others and has managed to build himself a key role in class due to his friendly nature and magnitude of attentiveness in class. His classmates praise his sense of humour and his leadership skills which make him give the maximum of his input in his studies and extracurricular activities that happen at the campus. He has also been widely praised for his genuine presentation skills. In a very short span of time, Kiran has presented himself as a friendly natured, wise and attentive individual”

Way to go Kiranjeet, we all are proud of you for achieving such wonderful comments from everyone at ICNZ. You are our pride. Keep up the good job!

Inside this issue

- ✔ Guest Speaker of the Month
- ✔ Alumni's Information
- ✔ Student Showcase
- ✔ Coming Soon

GUEST SPEAKER OF THE MONTH

Darryn AtchisonStaff Solicitor- Grey Lynn Neighbourhood Law Office, New Zealand

ICNZ was pleased to conduct a session where Darryn shared his legal expertise with our students and educated them on accessing appropriate legal advice.

Darryn works as a solicitor with a focus on education and information services. Darryn is responsible for assisting GLNLO on strategic projects. Prior to joining GLNLO, Darryn worked for Waitakere Community Law Service for 3 ½ years. He held the role of Senior Lawyer at Waitakere for 2 ½ years. That role was equivalent to the Professional Practice Leader role at GLNLO. Before going to Waitakere, Darryn worked as a staff solicitor at a number of Auckland Law Practices.”

Darryn educated the students of ICNZ over the below subjects

- ▶ Laws in general in NZ
- ▶ Criminal Law
- ▶ Civil Law: included touch up on Immigration Law & Traffic Offences.
- ▶ Law & Traffic offences.

Students were extremely pleased with this session as it gave them a great insight on the legal system of NZ.

OUR ALUMNI

Manpreet Singh Sahota

FEEDBACK

Manpreet
Working as a
Assistant Manager for Whitestar

His role involves the daily operations of the contracting business which includes organising the workforce of 40+ workers and all the financial and marketing planning of the business. Manpreet is thankful to ICNZ as he believes his business studies helped him to add the required skills to his personality, resulting in this position. He was aware of occupational health and many such subjects even before commencing his studies. This credit is given to ICNZ and team.

Manpreet, we are proud of your achievements!

Congratulations!!!

ICNZ alumni Praneet Nand is engaged..

It was a great pleasure to see one of our alumni getting engaged and sharing the pictures with us. He considers us a part of the family and is extremely pleased to share his personal success with us. Praneet was a very focused individual during his studies and each staff member is proud of him. He has done exceptionally well professionally and now has attained another level in his personal life.

Praneet, we all wish you luck with your lovely princess!

Student ShowcaseAUCKLAND IS TOP AUSTRALASIAN SPOT

Auckland has been named Australasia's top destination in the World Travel Awards. It has beaten Sydney, Bora Bora, the Whitsunday Islands and Fiji's Yasawa Group for the title. The city now goes on to compete in the World Travel Awards 2012 in New Delhi in December. Auckland has also been announced as a finalist for the Sport City Award in the 2012 International Sports Event Management Awards, alongside Copenhagen, Dusseldorf, Glasgow, London, Manchester and Melbourne.

ICNZ - COMING SOON

▶ Guest Lecturer

- Traffic and Accidents- Nid Satjipanon
- Tenancy Obligations- Nid Satjipanon

▶ Student Referral Scheme

The team at ICNZ has come up with a referral scheme where our present and past students can earn a decent pocket money, when they refer any on-shore or off-shore student for opting for a Business diploma at ICNZ. To know more about this, contact our team at ICNZ, Auckland.